USCG CERTIFICATE OF DOCUMENTATION EXPIRATION NOTICE

ATTENTION:

At this time, public records indicate that your vessel's USCG Documentation is SET TO EXPIRE. A current Certificate of Documentation is required to be on board your vessel at all times (46 CFR 67.313). It is critical that the documentation be RENEWED on time to avoid penalties and the possibility of your documentation lapsing. The operation of a vessel without valid USCG Documentation could constitute a fine and/or additional fees per day. If you have already renewed your vessel's certificate of documentation, or feel that you have received this courtesy notice in error, you may disregard this notice. This is a solicitation notice. Vessel Documentation Portal, a private firm, has assisted thousands of boat owners in applying for and obtaining US Coast Guard Certificates of Documentation as well as other documentation.

TO RENEW:

You may use our services to renew your USCG documentation through our private online application portal at www.vesselrenewal.us, or via phone at (866) 343-0530. Use of our process requires payment of a service fee in addition to the government renewal application fee. All application and processing fees are non-refundable.

MULTI-YEAR SERVICE:

To further ensure your vessel's documentation never lapses, you may also secure multiple yearlong RENEWALS at once, using the Advanced Payment option. Our new private online application portal has been designed to ensure the security of your information, providing you with advanced SSL-Encryption, and confirmation email of your application submission. Over the years, our private company, Vessel Documentation Portal, has assisted thousands of boat owners renew their USCG documentation. By submitting an application through our firm's private online application portal, you agree to the site's terms and conditions. Notice of obligation; this is not an invoice.
